The church was organized around 1830 in the Magnolia Estates area and moved to its current location around 1835. The current two-story church building (the fifth for the congregation) was constructed in 1954 with a low front gable roof and large steeple.
								[UMC cont'd] The entry is covered by a pediment supported by two-story columns. The federal-style double door entry is surrounded by large windows on the first and second floors. The sanctuary features two-story windows. Its associated cemetery is also located on the site with an additional memorial cemetery across Smith Road (Cornelius Jaycees 1971).
